

Figure 4: Sample reports highlighting the principal causes of delays and breakdowns

Hall Longmore's Wadeville facility. (Photo by Google Earth)

Conclusion

Hall Longmore's track record of delivery is unquestioned yet the company's willingness to question its performance and investigate ways of improving and speeding up its production processes should be testimony enough to its stakeholders that continuous and incremental improvement is one of the vital keys to sustained success.

AWARD WINNER
Hall Longmore and system integrator Bytes System Integration won The Best Manufacturing Execution System (MES) Application award for the information and tracking system implemented at the company's Wadeville pipe manufacturing plant.